Code of Conduct for Students

Students should:-

- Treat all individuals with respect, including teachers, peers, staff, and visitors to the College.
- Responsible for their own learning, behaviour, and academic progress. This includes attending classes regularly, completing assignments on time, and actively participating in the learning process.
- Contribute to a safe and supportive learning environment by following safety rules and reporting any concerns about safety hazards or threats to school authorities.
- Demonstrate honesty and integrity in all academic work, including tests, assignments, and assessments. Plagiarism, cheating, and academic dishonesty are not tolerated.
- Respect College property, as well as the property of others. This includes taking care of textbooks, equipment, facilities, and personal belongings.
- Refrain from engaging in any form of bullying, harassment, or discrimination based on factors such as race, gender, religion, disability, or sexual orientation.
- Arrive on time for classes and other activities, and they should attend all scheduled classes unless excused for legitimate reasons.
- Use technology responsibly and in accordance with College policies. This includes appropriate use of computers, tablets, mobiles and other electronic devices.
- Must carry I-Cards for getting access to the Library.
- Not carry their belongings inside the Library.
- Must have a minimum attendance of 75% during the academic year in order to take the College examinations.
- In case of absenteeism due to illness, students must present a medical certificate to the college.
- Should park their vehicles properly in the place earmarked for Students' Parking.

Students who violate the code of conduct may face consequences such as warnings, detention, suspension, or expulsion, depending on the severity of the offense and the College's disciplinary policies.
